Ficus - Fine Living is a fresh new concept in branded furniture and home accessories. Ficus draws inspiration from nature to craft a range of furniture, decor accents, linens, lighting, artefacts and more. The distinctive offerings from Ficus seamlessly blur the boundaries between the outdoors and indoors and merges materials, textures, colours, forms and finishes in ways that are contemporary yet timeless. They combine an aesthetic that refashion the natural in unique and versatile ways, to create an urban sanctuary enlivened by style and substance. To ensure our customers' experience of the brand stays fresh and vibrant, we keep introducing new styles and product lines regularly that are in keeping with global trends.

Ficus rejuvenates interiors with a diverse range of contemporary furniture crafted from nature-inspired materials and fused with different elements which makes them classy and comfortable. All the collections evoke a classical yet minimalistic ethos. Ficus has a vast selection of collectibles and decor accents that are sure to become veritable extensions of clients' individual styles. To further facilitate this, Ficus' team of consultants advises clients and architects globally on interiors and aesthetics. Further, one is also able to customise a piece of furniture, for which Ficus partners with clients to interpret their ideas into unique works of art to fulfill any décor need.

Ficus - Fine Living is owned by Anurag Kanoria, who was born into a family of art collectors, thus imbibing a natural fascination for art and antiques. He has been the visionary and driving force behind the success of Ficus - Fine Living.
